The following items of information may indicate the growing unrest which is occurring at the present time within the Argentine Government.

- 25X1X 1. [REDACTED] on 11 October four truckloads of arms in wooden boxes were delivered by the Gendarmeria Nacional, using their own trucks, to the Confederacion General de Trabajo, at Calles Azopardo and Independencia. This is a precautionary move carried out by presidential order.
- 25X1X 2. [REDACTED] a six-inch plastic-type bomb exploded on 21 October at approximately 4 a.m. at the main entrance of the Banco de la Nacion, on Calle Rivadavia and about 100 yards from President Peron's offices in the Pink House.
3. A second six-inch plastic-type bomb which failed to explode was discovered on 21 October at the main entrance of the Presidential residence in Olivos, Province of Buenos Aires.
4. The Coordinacion de Informes de Estado (CIE), Argentine intelligence agency, is in charge of investigating the bombings.*

25X1A [REDACTED] This organization was formerly known as Oficina de Control del Estado (OCE) and only recently has assumed its new title.
